International Trivia Nights Return to Global Village Museum

What very large island is located 200 miles northwest of Iceland? Where is the Karoo, an arid region known for sheep raising?

To find out, come join other trivia gamers at the Global Village Museum of Arts and Cultures on Sept. 26 and Oct. 31. The Museum is hosting two International Trivia Nights from 6-7:30 pm on those two Tuesdays. The Museum held three trivia nights last spring, and all were sold out.

Each fun and friendly event will feature some 50 multiple-choice questions, with teams of six competing for prizes and bragging rights. Light refreshments will be served, and the Oct. 31 game will be Halloween-themed with participants encouraged to wear costumes.

Admission for both Museum members and non-members is $10 per person per game, and advanced reservations are required at globalvillagemuseum.org. Partial teams or full six-person teams are welcome with a two-step process. First, team members should make individual reservations. Second, an email with the names of team members must be sent to the Museum's Outreach Coordinator at outreach@globalvillagemuseum.org. Individuals who register without a team will be joined with others on the night of the event. Registration for the Sept. 26 trivia will close at 5 pm Friday, Sept. 22, and registration for the Oct. 31 game will close at 5 pm Friday, Oct. 27.

The Global Village Museum is located at 200 West Mountain Avenue, and Museum hours are 11 am to 5 pm Tuesday through Saturday. Regular admission is $5 for adults, $3 for seniors and students, $1 for ages 4-15, and free for children three and under. Adult tours receive discounted admission of $3/person. For more information, please visit globalvillagemuseum.org or call 970-221-4600.
