It is not just that the economic divide in America has grown wider; it's that the rich and poor effectively occupy different worlds, even when they live in the same cities and metros.

CHALLENGE #1

Currently, some employers cannot find the talent that they need.

Instead, they are working existing employees harder, choosing not to grow, or expanding in another community.

RECRUITMENT CHALLENGES

- Difficulty attracting:
 - Talent from Denver and from coasts
 - C-Level executives
 - Young professionals
- Reliable workers to fill jobs with high physical requirements – warehouse, waste collection, construction laborers
- Workers that can pass the drug test – most often fail due to marijuana use
- Low-wage services – food services, housekeeping

RETENTION CHALLENGES

- Underemployment means that overqualified workers are always looking for a better job
- Generational expectations
- Young professional gap

COMPARISON OF JOBS VS LABOR FORCE

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS OF JOBS VS ATTAINMENT OF LABOR FORCE, Fort Collins – Loveland MSA

PIPELINE CHALLENGES

- Awareness of resources
- Employer engagement & input
- Finding instructors – nursing, computer science
- Student choices
 - Awareness of non 4-year opportunities
 - Choice of majors at CSU and UNC

MOST POPULAR MAJORS

TOP 25 LARGEST FIELDS OF STUDY, 3-YEAR AVERAGE

STRUCTURAL CHALLENGES

- Housing affordability at all income levels
 - Purchase & rental
- Quality childcare for affordable prices
- Transportation/mobility: traffic makes Denver farther away

CHALLENGE #2

Over next 5 years, employers will have at least 28,000 openings to fill.

The labor force adds only about 2,000 to 3,000 workers each year. As a result, the labor market will likely tighten further unless population growth accelerates.

CHALLENGE #3

In many key occupations, more than 25% of the workers are 55 or older. With the wave of likely retirements, employers will need to start succession planning now in order to prepare for the loss of those key individuals.

Louisville Loves Body Parts

September 25th, 2013 by admin | See what 1 other Friend of Lou had to say about this.

A City That's Not Just a Pretty Face

When it comes to enjoying the physically pleasing parts of life — some of the best food and coolest music in the country, great college sports, a vibrant riverfront, horseracing, Olmsted parks and North America's largest municipal urban forest, bourbon, hip neighborhoods like NuLu and the Highlands, and much more — Louisville's one of the most attractive metropolitan bodies in the country. But we're also:

A City of Great Taste

Part cool venue, part handy segue from this section to the next, tomorrow evening is the Taste of Innovation, over two hours of unlimited food and spirits provided by more than 30 of the region's most creative chefs, restaurants, brewers, baristas, distillers, and mixologists, with musical entertainment at Churchill Downs.

A City of Deep Thought

This week we welcome folks from around the globe as they visit us for IdeaFestival 2013 (September 24–27). The world's leading thinkers, doers, and innovators join curious minds for four days to explore, discuss, and celebrate innovation, imagination, and world-changing ideas.
