

Cline Williams is proud to celebrate the 5th anniversary of our Employment Law Forum in Colorado this year! We invite you and members of your organization to attend the 2018 Employment Law Forum to learn about the latest developments in employment, labor, and employee benefits laws.

Our Employment Law Forum is geared toward human resource professionals, business owners, executive employees, and in-house legal counsel. Attendance at this educational seminar is free, and credit for this seminar will be sought from:

- Colorado CLE Commission
- Nebraska CLE Commission
- Wyoming CLE Commission
- HR Certification Institute
- Society for Human Resource Management

An invitation and registration information will be sent via email in August.

FEATURED TOPICS

- Recent Developments under the FMLA and ADA
- Preventing and Responding to Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation Claims
- Wage/Hour and Employee Classification Issues
- Best Practices for Employee Handbooks: What to Add and What to Avoid
- Avoiding, Addressing, and Acing an Audit
- Form I-9 Compliance
- Developments within the EEOC and DOL
- Managing Employees and Protecting Company Information in a Digital World

SAVE THE DATE

Thursday, October 11, 2018

Ginger & Baker
359 Linden Street
1:00 - 5:00 p.m.

ADD TO CALENDAR

SPONSORED BY:

Flood and Peterson