

Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce 2019 Small Business of the Year

Nomination Form

The 2019 Small Business of the Year Awards celebrates small employers and their contribution to Fort Collins.

For this award, a small business is defined as an independently owned and operated business headquartered in northern Colorado that is organized for profit. The business has 200 employees or fewer. To receive a Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year Award, the company must be a member of the Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce at the time the award is presented and have been in business three years (with the exception of the New Kid on the Block Award).

Awards will be given in up to four categories: 1-10 Employees; 11-50 Employees; 51-200 Employees; New Kid on the Block (been in business for less than three years)

Judging Criteria: Community involvement and stewardship; Commitment to good business practices; Overall business growth and innovation; Workplace culture and employee relations
