

New Location, Lower Price for Meet N Speak© Luncheon!

This unique, fast-moving, and entertaining networking event is at the classic and classy The Still Whiskey Steaks at 151 N. College, on Wednesday May 22, from 11:30 to 1:15. The concept is simple: speed tell and show, with a great lunch.

The focus is on the businesses and non-profits who attend and sponsor. No referral obligations. No membership requirements. No dues. No outside speakers - the only speakers are the attendees and sponsors.

All businesses and non-profits are welcome. Be prepared to:

- ★ Bring a rubber-banded deck 50 business cards to be passed around during lunch.
- ★ Bring all the literature and promotional items you want, to be placed on the public literature tables.
- ★ Deliver a creative 45 second commercial or a presentation on any topic.
- ★ Bring a prize donation for additional exposure. (Optional)
- ★ Volunteer a testimony for an attending business or non-profit for additional exposure (Optional).

Some presenters choose to be creative! Presentations have ranged from straight commercials to highly creative comedy, singing, skits, raps and poetry. Prizes will be awarded to the best presentations.

Affordable marketing options are available to increase your visibility before, during and after the event. Options include sponsor opportunities, banner stand placement and literature distribution to each dining table place setting. Donations of presentation prizes and business card drawing prizes are welcome. The prizes will be presented by the donors, further enhancing their visibility.

Space is limited and there are attendance restrictions. Submit your reservation today to be sure you and your group have a place. The cost is only $20 with advanced online reservation or $30 at the door.

Tap the bar below to view all the important details and to complete the on-line Reservation Form. No payment is due with your reservation. You will be invoiced when your reservation is approved.
